

School of Liberal Arts

English
ETE - May 2023

Time : 3 Hours

Marks : 50

Sem VI - ENG3007 - Global Feminism

*Your answer should be specific to the question asked
Draw neat labeled diagrams wherever necessary*

1. State how Wollstonecraft's work influenced the women's rights movement in the 19th and 20th centuries. K1 CO1 (2)
2. Discuss how the concept of intersectionality relates to feminist theory. K2 CO2 (2)
3. Illustrate the meaning of the social construction of disability. K3 CO3 (2)
4. Analyze Mohanty's critical approach to the idea that feminism is a single, homogenous movement. K4 CO4 (2)
5. Chart the role of social media in feminist activism. K4 CO5 (2)
6. Write a short note on how zines provide a platform for feminist activism. K3 CO1 (5)
7. Outline the significance of Patricia Hill Collins' argument for feminist theory and activism? K4 CO2 (5)
8. Evaluate how Patricia Hills Collins' emphasizes on the concept of intersectionality and the matrix of domination as frameworks for the social analysis of feminism. K5 CO5 (6)
9. Assess the key benefits and limitations of using zine making as a form of feminist pedagogy according to Kimberly Creasap. K4 CO3 (8)
10. Evaluate the key characteristics of the second wave of feminism and how did it seek to expand the scope of women's rights. K5 CO4 (8)
11. Assess how Collins and Mohanty address the issue of intersectionality within feminist and post-colonial frameworks to empower marginalized communities. K6 CO5 (8)