

School of Law

Bachelor of Law
ETE - Jun 2023

Time : 3 Hours

Marks : 100

Sem II - J1UA206T - Laws Relating to Trademark

Your answer should be specific to the question asked

Draw neat labeled diagrams wherever necessary

1. Discuss the relevance and importance of Trademark in the Today's Competitive Market. K1 CO1 (5)
2. Explain the concept of cyber squatting and domain name dispute with the help of relevant examples. K2 CO3 (5)
3. Define the term "Mark" and "Trademark" as per the provisions of Trademark Act, 1999. K1 CO2 (5)
4. When there was no existence of any international convention in the field of industrial property, it was difficult to obtain protection for inventions in different countries of the world due to the diversity of laws. K3 CO5 (10)
Discuss the role of Paris Convention for the protection of Industrial Property.
5. By the help of various Case Laws explain the various types of trademark. K2 CO4 (10)
6. A trademark shall not be registered if - K3 CO6 (10)
when there exists a likelihood of confusion on part of public.
Comment on the above statement by discussing the Relative Grounds for Refusal of Registration.
- 7) Explicate upon the Historical development, concept, nature and evolution of trademark. K4 CO3 (10)

OR

Explain the following types of Trademark:- K4 CO4 (10)

1. Word Mark
2. Service Mark

8. The Indian Trademark law accords extraordinary protection to trade marks that are 'well known' and safeguards them from vices of infringement and passing off. K4 CO6 (15)
Comment on the given statement by highlighting the protection given to "well known trademarks" under Trademarks Act, 1999.
9. Trademark form an important Intellectual Property for an Organisation. Therefore it is pertinent to discuss how Trademark affect Brands. K5 CO1 (15)
Trace down the Economic Foundation of Trademark Law.
- 10) Critically analyse the conceptual meaning and differentiation between Collective mark and Certification mark. K5 CO2 (15)

OR

Expound upon the provisions pertaining to the Absolute Grounds of Registration. K5 CO5 (15)